INTERNATIONAL SOCIETY OF NURSES IN CANCER CARE (ISNCC)

NOMINATION FOR ISNCC AWARDS

Please submit the completed nomination package to the ISNCC Head Office at info@isncc.org.

The ISNCC Head Office will accept nominations for ISNCC Awards until October 4, 2019. Please note that the forms must be completed correctly for the nomination to be valid.

While membership (either through membership in one of ISNCC's Full Members, or individually) are not required, priority is given to nurses who are members of ISNCC.

Please note that all awards are for the International Conference on Cancer Nursing (ICCN) 2020, March 29 – April 1, 2019 in London, United Kingdom.

Please complete the following ISNCC Awards Application Form and submit the following:

- a complete curriculum vitae (CV) outlining all applicable experience
- 2 letters of reference, including 1 letter from a national cancer nursing society if feasible. If not feasible (your country/region has no cancer nursing society) make sure your second letter addresses your commitment to advancing cancer nursing in your country/region
- self-nominations are acceptable, as long as the documentation above is included.

ISNCC AWARDS GUIDELINES

DISTINGUISHED MERIT AWARD

Purpose

The Distinguished Merit Award is offered once every two years in recognition of an outstanding contribution to the international advancement of the science and art of cancer nursing.

Nomination Criteria

- The successful nominee will be a professional nurse who has made a significant and innovative contribution to cancer practice, education, research, or management at an international level.
- This contribution should go beyond that which would be normally expected of a professional nurse in his/her particular sphere of professional endeavor.
- The award is not designed to recognize long and faithful service by a cancer nurse in the practice of his/her profession.
- A higher degree (e.g. Masters or PhD) or other academic attainment is not a pre-requisite for nomination and selection.
- The nominee for the award must hold an appointment for which a nursing qualification is required or for which such a qualification is relevant.

Up to 2 nominees may be selected for the Distinguished Merit Award if warranted.

PAST PRESIDENTS' AWARD

Purpose

This award was given for the first time at the biennial conference of the ISNCC in the year 2000. It is given in recognition of a cancer nurse from a low or middle income country who has initiated and sustained a program of cancer care in her/his country/region which has been in place for three or more years and has the potential for replication or adaptation beyond the country/region's borders.

Nomination Criteria

The recipient of this award:

- Should be a cancer nurse from a low or middle income country.
- Has initiated in her/his country/region a program of cancer care in the arena of cancer education; cancer prevention, early detection and/or screening; nursing care of patients with cancer including palliative care; and/or the development of cancer related health policy.
- Has provided evidence of sustaining the program for three or more years.
- Presents evidence of outcomes achieved.
- Has developed a program of cancer care which can be replicated or adapted in other countries/regions.

ROBERT TIFFANY LECTURESHIP

Purpose

This lectureship was created to keep alive and honour the memory of Robert Tiffany, founding member and first President of the International Society of Nurses in Cancer Care. Robert Tiffany was the initiator of the Biennial International Conference on Cancer Nursing. Robert Tiffany was an inspiration to many nurses around the world and the intention of the named lecture is to honour those who have a similar capacity to inspire cancer nurses of today and of the future and advance cancer nursing globally.

Nomination Criteria

The successful nominee will be a professional nurse who has the capacity to inspire others towards excellence in cancer care. They will be recognized as a leader in cancer nursing in their own country/region and, preferably, at a regional or international level. Importantly they will be acknowledged as a person capable of delivering an inspirational lecture, in English, on a topic relevant to cancer nursing.

The successful nominee will be expected to present a lecture of high professional standard to an international audience and a paper for ISNCC's dissemination.

AWARDS/SCHOLARSHIPS PRESENTATION, INSIGNIA AND FUNDING

- Successful nominees will receive a distinctive award, approved by the ISNCC Nominations and Awards Committee.
- Nominees will be expected to contribute a summary of their presentation or lecture for dissemination by ISNCC through its blog, website, social media or Cancer Nursing Journal, as appropriate
- The names of the award winners will be inscribed in a Register of Awards to be held and maintained by the ISNCC Head Office.
- Appropriate press releases will be made regarding the award with the co-operation of the nominee. The successful nominee will be appointed an honorary Global Citizen (Bronze level) of ISNCC until the end of 2020.
- Reimbursement will be made for an economy class return airfare to the conference venue, 3 days of hotel accommodation and a complimentary conference registration.

During the conference, award recipients will be expected to:

- Attend the ISNCC business meeting (held as part of the conference proceedings)

The ISNCC Head Office will accept nominations for ISNCC Awards until October 4, 2019. Please note that the forms must be completed correctly for the nomination to be valid.

Please note that all awards are for the International Conference on Cancer Nursing (ICCN) 2020, March 29 – 1 April, 2019 in London, United Kingdom.
